Stoicism Under the Gallows. THE PENALTY PAID

Special to Daily Intelligencer.

PARKERSBUEG, March 6.—Joseph Eisele alias John Schafer, the murderer of Lillienthal. Tsutor and Ulrich, and the would-be murderer of Major White, all of this city, was hanged this evening in a field adjoining the Northwestern Turnpike, about two miles out of town. The weather was cloudy and wet, and the roads knee deep with mud. Notwithstanding this a crowd of both sexes of over five thousand, a few mounted and riding in wagons, were there to see the execution of one of the most cold-blooded murderers known to the annals of crime.

The prisoner, escorted by his confessor, Father Parke, arrived at the scaffold about 1230 P. M. He made no address, but handed to a friend a written confession, which is to be published. He maintained a calm and stolid manner, and ascended the gallows with a firm step, showing a rather prepossessing face and presence.
